PRODUCT LICENSE AGREEMENT

DIGITAL DOWNLOADS – LICENSE FOR PRIVATE AND EDUCATIONAL USE

By downloading these files, you receive a license for personal use. The files may only be used after editing, with at least the following adjustments:

- Change colors
- Change text/words
- Replace logos
- Replace graphics
- Adjust fonts

The edited files may be used for your own projects, social media, portfolio, or self-promotion. All rights remain with DrillUp.
Resale or transfer of the files, even in edited form, is not permitted.

LICENSE SCOPE & USE

- The license is non-exclusive, non-transferable, and valid for one person only.
- Files may only be used after visible editing.
- Use for private projects, social media, portfolios, or self-promotion is permitted after visible editing.
- Sale, transfer, or commercial use is strictly prohibited.

Violations of this license agreement will result in immediate termination of the license, immediate cessation of use, and may result in legal action, including claims for damages.

SOUNDS

The project files currently do not contain any sounds or music, as we do not yet have a partner for this. However, we are working on offering project files with sounds in the future in cooperation with Artlist.io. Access to sounds will then also be possible with a valid subscription to Artlist.io.

OWNERSHIP & RIGHTS

All content remains the intellectual property of DrillUp.

The purchase does not transfer any copyrights, exploitation rights, or distribution rights, but only a right of use to the extent described.

NO REFUNDS

Digital products such as our project files or blueprints are excluded from the right of withdrawal once the purchase has been completed and DrillUp has begun to execute the contract (§356 (5) BGB). After purchase, there is no right to a refund in order to prevent misuse.

LIABILITY

The content is provided “as is.” DrillUp accepts no liability for results, sales, reach, or success arising from the application of the knowledge learned.
